“Powerful Words”

Canada Institute of Linguistics - Matthew Wicker

God’s Word is powerful, and yet there are about 180 million people around the world who have no way of accessing it in a language that they can understand. All around the world, though, exciting things are happening as communities encounter the words of Scripture in the language they know best.

“Rise of Anti-Semitism: What to Choose, Fulfillment of Prophecy or Loving Your Neighbor?”

Life in Messiah International - Serge Makhovitskiy

There has been a noticeable rise of worldwide Anti-Semitism within the last couple of years. We thought the world learned its lesson after the Holocaust, but apparently not. This seminar will inform the audience of recent anti-semitic incidents worldwide and encourage appropriate engagement.

“New Methods of Evangelism for a Spiritually Unconcerned Society”

In other cultures, and even in our own changing culture, traditional methods of evangelism are not effective. Some creative ideas for relevant and effective presentation of the Gospel.

“Putting Feet to Your Faith”

“Chronological Evangelism Among Muslims and Atheists “

ROCK International - Alan White

The importance of defining biblical words and giving the biblical, historical background to the gospel by beginning in Genesis. True stories of how God has used chronological Bible teaching and hospitality in Turkey to reach Muslims and Marxists for Christ.

“How What You Believe About Poverty Impacts Your Ministry”

Cru Spokane/ Medical Assistance & Missional Outreach (MAMO) - Marchauna Rodgers

Understanding poverty, and a biblical response to poverty, can help positively impact your ministry. Come learn some basics about poverty and responses to poverty so you can begin to identify what you believe and how that will impact what you do to help fulfill the Great Commission.

“How the Gospel and Justice Intersect”

Cru Spokane/ Medical Assistance & Missional Outreach (MAMO) - Marchauna Rodgers

How do we prevent missional drift that tugs at the truth of God’s Word? We must look back into history, to see the impact of Christianity over the centuries, and how we can get back to the essence of what Christ called us to in the Great Commission. This seminar pulls heavily from theologians of the 30s and 40s, as well as Christian sociologists and theologians of today.

“Resurgent Animism: The Spirits Are Alive and Well”

Perspectives and World Venture - Garry Morgan

Once considered mere superstition by people in the West, practiced only by remote, uneducated tribes, animistic religions are rapidly gaining adherents here in North America and Europe. What is Animism and why is it becoming so popular?

“Panel Discussion: Ministry With Local Tribes”

Great Northern University - Dr. David Beine

Ministry WITH local tribes. A panel discussion led by Dr Beine (Dean of our college of Global Engagement) that will include a couple of our local tribal friends. Some questions discussed will be: What could/should our (dominant culture) ministry with local tribes look like? How can we encourage contextualized ministry with our local tribal neighbors?

A personal testimony of God’s grace and His work through my life in missions. This is a call for humility and dependency upon God, and a yielded willingness to obedience.

“Racial Unity and the Great Commission”

TEAM - Katie Comstock

What if disunity between racial groups in the church is a major impediment to the spread of the gospel? What might happen if we could bridge the gaps that keep us apart?

“Mission to the Nations Here in Our City: Befriending Refugees”

World Relief - Jackson Lino

God has brought the nations to us. It’s the best way for the church to do cross-cultural mission right here in our city. It changes us too! We gain as much as we get when we befriend and help appreciative and vulnerable people who have left all they knew for a chance for their families to be safe and start new lives here.

Yet valuable beyond measure are the lessons learned, sometimes through failures, sometimes in successes.

“Going the Distance for Nomads”

93% of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing have no contact with a church. They are also considered the 4th most unreached people group with the gospel of Christ*. Sadly, they are living right here in your community. Why is it so hard for the hearing body of Christ to reach out to this culturally rich minority group? I want to help you explore what we can do to bridge the gap and change the landscape of our community for the Kingdom of God.

“Alumni Missionary Reflections”

Alumni from the schools that have been in this location since 1972 answer the questions, “How did we get there?” and “Would we do it again?”
